

Celebrating 43 Years of NIWCYD's Journey

Growing together through innovation, collaboration, and care

Our Achievement So far

Livelihood-

1 lakh 21 thousand beneficiaries for livelihood

Tribal & Forest-

About 2 lakhs families have been supported for forest conservation, indigenous seed conservation, education, , livelihood, CFR, etc.

Environment-

More than 4980 families supported for natural resource management.

Child Rights & Education-

Thousands of children have been supported through education, shelter, counseling, etc.

Youth Development-

More than 38841 youth have undergone skill-based training and livelihood support.

Women Empowerment-

Around 2189 SHGs supported entrepreneurship development, financial literacy, livelihood, etc

Message from the Vice President

Gratitude and Commitment

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our stakeholders — community members, partners, donors, team members, and supporters — who have stood with NIWCYD through every phase of our journey. Your unwavering support during both challenging and successful times has been instrumental in our collective pursuit of community well-being.

We remain dedicated to deepening our efforts in empowering the underserved and contributing meaningfully to inclusive and sustainable development.

Together, we look forward to continuing this journey — building resilient communities and driving measurable social impact.

Shri. Rajeshkumar Malviya

VICE PRESIDENT AND FOUNDER
NIWCYD

"NIWCYD's guidance and inspiration empowered me to take decisive action in the conservation of over 1,500 hectares of forest land, successfully preventing deforestation and preserving vital ecological resources for future generations."

Smt. Ujyaro Bai

NIWCYD COMMUNITY LEADER

"With the support of NIWCYD, we have developed the ability to think innovatively. Our FPO is now engaged in an end-to-end value chain approach — from millet production to processing it into biscuits and savory snacks, and finally marketing and selling the finished products."

Smt. Rekha Pandaram

MEHENDWANI, MP, FPO DIRECTOR

